

CHRONICLE

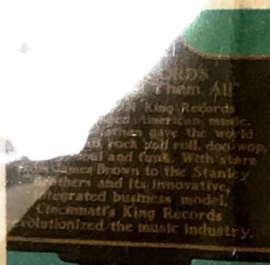

December 8, 2018 - December 14, 2018

is king of music history

King Records musicians were recognized at a Cincinnati Preservation Association luncheon in September at the Hilton Cincinnati Netherland Plaza. From left are Sherry Glover Thompson, King Records; Margaret Valentine, Cincinnati Preservation Association trustee; Otis Williams, King Records artist; Terry Stewart, former president/CEO Rock and Roll Hall of Fame; Philip Paul, King Records artist; and Brent Butts, chair of King Records Legacy.

Photo provided by Cincinnati Preservation Society.

The plaque installed at King Records' old studio in Evanston briefly describes the era of the historic recording studio.

Wyonnie "Mr. Blues" Harris, from Omaha, recorded this record under the King label.

